

Why NextGen 529?

Grants!¹

There are matching grants for Maine residents. Make contributions and get a 30% match, up to $300 each year.

Tax Advantages

Savings in your NextGen 529 account can grow tax-free. And when it's time for your student to go on to higher education, withdrawals are tax-free when used for qualified higher education expenses.*

Saving Pays

Every dollar in a NextGen 529 account is a dollar that doesn't need to be borrowed (and repaid with interest) later.

Gifting

Anyone can contribute to your NextGen 529 account – parents, grandparents, family, or friends. It's a great gift idea for birthdays and holidays.

¹ Grants for Maine residents are linked to eligible Maine accounts. An Alford Grant recipient is eligible to receive the $100 Initial Matching Grant if the minimum required initial contribution is made before the beneficiary's first birthday. Upon withdrawal, grants are Programs for details about eligibility and other conditions and restrictions that apply at NextGenforME.com. Grants may lose value.

² The Alford Grant is not automatic in all circumstances and is also available in limited other circumstances. The Alford Grant may be linked to an eligible NextGen 529 account. Upon withdrawal, the grant is paid only to institutions of higher education. The use of the Alford Grant is also subject to certain restrictions—see Alford Grant Guidelines.

Investing is an important decision. The investments in your account may vary with market conditions and could lose value. Carefully read the Program Description in its entirety for more information and consider all investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. For a copy of the Program Description, visit NextGenforMe.com or call 1-833-336-4529.

Investments in NextGen 529 are not guaranteed or insured by the State of Maine, the Finance Authority of Maine (FAME), NextGen 529 service providers, any other state or federal agency, or any other party. Non-qualified withdrawals are subject to federal taxes and penalties and Maine state income tax. NextGen 529 does not provide legal, investment, financial aid, tax or other advice, and the information provided does not contain advice and cannot be construed as such or relied upon for those purposes. You should consult your own advisors.

If you or your beneficiary are not Maine residents, your home state or that of your beneficiary may offer a 529 plan that provides state tax or other benefits, such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors, not available to you by investing in NextGen 529. You should consider such benefits, if any, before investing in NextGen 529.

NextGen 529 is a Section 529 plan administered by FAME.
